INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although [illegible] opposed to [illegible] medicines in general, through distrust of their [illegible] effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why [illegible] not testify to the benefits he believes him[illegible] received from any simple preparation, in the hope [illegible] thus contribute to the benefit of others. [illegible] do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's [illegible] Bitters prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this [illegible] I was prejudiced against them for many years, [illegible] the impression that they were chiefly an [illegible] mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert [illegible], for the removal of this prejudice by proper [illegible], and for encouragement to try them, when suffering [illegible] great and long continued debility. The use of three [illegible] of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.
Philadelphia, June 23, 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!
AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating, that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

Philadelphia, August 23, 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours,
ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

TRAVELLING AGENT

Mr [illegible] is the only authorized agent of the Daily and Weekly Oregonian, [illegible] finally settle all outstanding [illegible] this office in W[illegible] Territory, Victoria and British Columbia.

Reorganization of the Hudson's Bay Company.

The London Times of July 1st announces that the capital stock of this Company which has hitherto been £500,000 and has now been bought with all the assets for £1,500,000 will henceforth be two million pounds sterling. The property which will belong to the new Company will consist of all the material assets such as stores, ships, trading posts, etc, hitherto employed in the operations of the H. B. Company, a cash balance of nearly £400,000, and the entire landed territory granted to the Company under their charter nearly two centuries ago, extending over an area nearly half as large as Europe, and in the southern portion of which, connecting Upper Canada with British Columbia there is a fertile and temperate tract for settlement said to comprise more than twice the area of France. Up to this time the policy of the Hudson's Bay Company has been one of rigid exclusion—settlers have been kept off from the territory, and the sole object has been to preserve the country as a chase for the Indians, the barter with whom has enabled a steady aggregate income to be realized, the continuance of which will be sufficient apart from any new sources of income, to yield four per cent upon the new capital of £2,000,000.

The fresh operations contemplated by the Company are the erection of a telegraph line connecting Canada with British Columbia which will pass through 2,500 miles of their territory, and for which the provincial Governments have offered an annual subsidy, the establishment of postal communication on the same line, and the connection of the Atlantic and the Pacific by an exclusively British route—objects that have been and will be facilitated and encouraged by the imperial and the local colonial Governments, based upon a five per cent guarantee, the settlement of the country along that route, skirting the rapidly rising State and Territories of Minnesota, Nebraska and Washington, the leasing or development of the mineral deposits believed to abound at many points, and especially near the head of Lake Superior, and also on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains, and the encouragement by every possible facility of all the undertakings that are certain naturally to suggest themselves on the opening up of a field of this kind for agricultural and commercial enterprise for the first time. When it is recognized that in the State of Minnesota, which adjoins the lands of the Company, and which six years ago was a wilderness, there are now said to be more than 200,000 inhabitants, and that the telegraph line to San Francisco through the United States is alleged to have paid the cost of its construction in a single year, it is difficult not to entertain a sanguine view of the value which this property may attain.

It remains to be added that besides the assets and lands already described, there are some valuable estates in Vancouver's Island, a large tract of land in Minnesota, and a claim under the Oregon treaty on the United States Government, variously estimated at from £100,000 to £300,000, all of which belong to the Company.

Sir Edmund Head, late Governor General of Canada, is to be Governor of the Company with Mr Lampson, the most experienced merchant in London, connected with the fur trade, as Deputy Governor, and the Directors appointed are men of high business and commercial reputation.

To the people of Oregon and the Pacific Territories, the vast projects proposed by the Company cannot fail to be of great interest, and this will be largely increased it to the other purposes suggested, shall be added the construction of a Pacific Railway to Puget Sound, connecting with the Grand Trunk in Canada. This scheme, as is well known, has been long and seriously entertained, and we presume the energy and capital of the new corporation will before long be employed in a work of so great commercial consequence along our northern frontier.

IT SERVED THEM RIGHT.—The Philadelphia Ledger, in commenting upon the inactive classes in that State, says:

This rebel raid or intended invasion and subjugation, will unquestionably cure many of these persons. The other day there was in the Cumberland valley a large distiller who frequently boasted among his friends that he did not fear the secessionists of Lee's army. When they came he was going to place himself under their protection, and treat all around with a couple of barrels of whisky. They came, and took, without asking him, 700 barrels of whisky, his entire stock. Round about York and in Adams county there have been too many who have trusted to the forbearance of the foe, and been stripped of everything.

If George W. Jones, formerly of Salem, Massachusetts, is in Oregon, or at the North ern mines, he or any one knowing his location, is requested to give information at this office.

Letter from Olympia.

OLYMPIA, W. T., Aug 6, 1863

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Last Monday morning's issue of the daily Oregonian created a little furor in this village upon its arrival, and your correspondent at once received the denunciation of that august coterie of Federal officials who regard themselves as too sacred to be mentioned in the writings of a Johnian press. It was not to be set down as meddling in matters it is proper for him to know or talk about.

But I proceed to tell you what's the matter. You will remember, in my letter preceding this, I mentioned the fact that the political Warwicks were again at work, this time plotting the removal of Secretary Evans. This is denied by the whole of them, and Dr. Henry seems to take special umbrage at the editorial of the Oregonian relative to this matter. I did not mention his name as one of the parties, and Mr Evans informs me that the social relations between him and Dr. Henry are amicable and cordial, and that he has no reason to believe the Dr. has meditated his removal from office. You will therefore consider the friendship unbroken between these two gentlemen.

But such is not the case with the Secretary and the Governor. The feeling between these functionaries is not so agreeable or lovely, and from the fact that the Governor was heard to make a threat or what was supposed to be a threat, it was believed he would make an effort to have Evans removed. He now denies having threatened to do so, but whether this denial as well as those of other parties first suspicioned, is true or not we shall be better satisfied when we hear directly from Washington.

ANOTHER DENIAL.

John M Murphy of the Standard denies having demanded pay from the Central Committee "to secure his support of the Union nominee." It seems that he or rather the owner of the establishment, stated to the President of the Committee, that "they would put Raynor's name at the masthead, but they would not do anything extra for the candidate unless paid for it." This is now interpreted by Murphy to mean that "they would not furnish Raynor with any extra copies of the paper, unless he paid for them." I leave those interested to draw their own conclusions, only remarking that the explanation is regarded here as "powerful weak."

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

The Hon U. S. District Court for this district, is about closing its labors for the present term. The jury in the Roberts and Howe case, failed to agree upon a verdict, and hence the case remains undecided until another term.

I have heard some laughing about a peculiar kind of decision a certain juror arrived at in a civil case tried the other day, but can't tell the story further than that, upon the jury being polled, this juror stated that he had agreed to the verdict because it was according to the "law," but he did not think it according to "justice." The decision of the jury was of course, set aside, and a new trial granted.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

The day was duly observed by the good people of Olympia, and a collection taken up for the Sanitary fund amounting to nearly $100. The people of Washington Territory have merited much praise for the liberal donations made to this humane fund, and they will have this to refer to with proper pride in after time.

A PROMOTION.

I take pleasure in informing you that our mutual friend and esteemed brother typo, Major E. T. Gunn, has recently been promoted by the sovereign votes of this militia district, to the honorable station of Colonel. I saw his commission yesterday, duly signed and sealed by the Governor and Secretary of the Territory, and he is now unmistakably a live Colonel. He has been quite unwell for several days past, but is now, I am glad to say, convalescent, and will probably proceed to organize his forces and equip them for duty in a few days.

PRINTER'S UNION.

The printers this of place have taken the initiative steps toward the formation of a Printer's Union, the object of which is to regulate the rates by which greenbacks are to be taken for work.

ENOCH FRUIT KILLED AGAIN.—A correspondent of the Dalles Journal makes the following statement, which, if true, will tend greatly to relieve the fears of many packers and miners, though we very much doubt whether Enoch is dead yet, as he is one of the sort who won't stay killed:

I learn from parties just in from Boise that Enoch Fruit, the chief of road agents, and Jimmy Robinson, one of his gang, have met with a terrible yet deserving death from the well armed rifles of honest packers. The facts as near as I can gain them are as follows:

Somewhere in the vicinity of Birch creek Fruit and Robinson were observed by some packers to be on the track of a young man who was walking down from Boise with some $3000 in his possession, armed with an old army musket. As soon as the packers had camped and turned loose their animals four or five started back to pay their respects to the agents. Finding them in a thicket of bushes, they encircled it, and doubtless succeeded in their purpose, as, on their return to camp, they stated that they had seen the gentlemen. When the packers left in pursuit their rifles were loaded but on returning they were empty! Subsequently, two horses passed the camp, and the party which went out described and identified one as the horse rode by Fruit and the other as the one rode by Robinson. The young man has since arrived and reports that a few moments before the packing party returned Robinson rode up to him and inquired "Have you seen a man with a musket walking this way?" To which he replied "None but myself," when Robinson immediately crossed the road and rode into the thicket before mentioned and where he had seen an other man go a few minutes previous. It seems that the young man had been placed upon his guard by the packers when they first passed him. It is reported that the packers on their return had three or four revolvers, navy size. It is generally believed here by parties coming in that these two notorious scoundrels have ended their existence, and you may be assured that the intelligence is joyful to many.

Fruit is too well known to require any biographical sketch. Jimmy Robinson alias White, was a young boyish looking individual, who was in Portland during the months from November, 1861, to March 1862. He was of rather dark complexion, very black hair, well formed, good looking and would pass in the best of society. Last fall he was prominent among the Lewiston and Florence City "road agents," and during the past spring I remember seeing him in Portland. His parents are well known in Marysville and Sacramento, and are said to be among the most respectable citizens. He made a remark at Bannock City a few days since that he had been a "petty thief long enough, and from that time he intended being a chief," and so we account for his appearance with Enoch.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to August 8th.

WASHINGTON, August 7.—Statements appeared in some of the Northern papers after the fall of Vicksburg and the defeat of Lee, that the question of peace had been discussed in the Federal Cabinet and that a Cabinet crisis had been caused by the proposition of Mr Seward to issue an amnesty to the Southern people. These statements were not thought sufficiently important to demand contradiction. It seems now that they went to Europe and were made the foundation for new castles in air, built by European enemies of the United States. It is therefore proper to say that these statements had no foundation. No such debates or proposition of such amnesty been made nor have any difficulties arisen.

BALTIMORE, August 7.—The American of this evening says Richmond papers of the 4th contain the following address by Jeff Davis:

To the Soldiers of the Confederacy—After over two years war, scarcely equalled in the number magnitude and fearful carnage of its battles, which your courage and fortitude have illustrated, attracting not only gratitude at home, but admiration abroad your enemies continue the struggle in which our final triumph must be inevitable. Conscious of our ability to prevail by legitimate warfare and not daring to make peace lest they should be hurled from their seats of power, the men who now rule at Washington refuse even to confer on the subject of putting an end to the outrages which disgrace our age, or listen to suggestions for conducting the war according to the usages of civilization. There is no alternative left you but victory or subjugation, slavery and utter ruin of yourselves, your families and your country. Victory is within your reach—you have but to stretch forth your hand. All that is necessary is for those called to the field by every motive that can move human hearts promptly to repair to their posts of duty, and stand by their comrades now in front of the foe and thus so strengthen the Confederacy as to insure success.

Davis then appeals to those who have absented themselves from their posts to return to their duty and declares a general amnesty for 30 days to allow officers and men now absent without leave to return. He then says, finally: "I conjure my countrywomen, wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the Confederacy, to use their all powerful influence in aid of the call, to add one crowning sacrifice to those which their patriotism has so freely and so constantly offered on their country's altar, and take care that none who owe service in the field be sheltered from disgrace, having deserted their country and their God."

CHICAGO, August 8.—The Tribune's Washington special says the impending battle which the New York and Philadelphia secessionists have been exercising themselves about continues to impend, but seems further off than ever.

NEW YORK, August 8.—The Tribune publishes the following:

A furious and bloody riot occurred at Sugar Grove, Warren county, Pa, thus described by a correspondent, who says, that when the draft began Tuesday morning, an armed mob suddenly appeared and ordered the marshal to stop. He refused, when the mob fired into the room, killing the marshal and three others. They then set the building on fire and started to sack the finest houses in the place. The home guards and citizens flew to arms, and in a short time the rioters were met by a force of 100 men. The captain gave the rioters five minutes to disperse, they refused, and the guard fired, killing the leader and eight others on the first volley. The mob returned fire, killing three citizens. They got another volley and then a bayonet charge and were put to flight, running into the building they had used as a rendezvous. here they were captured and taken to jail. The people were furious and made desperate efforts to get at the villains that they might hang them on the spot. Thirty six of them were killed.

ANOTHER MURDER IN BANNOCK CITY.—A letter in the Dalles Journal, from Bannock, states "that a Polish Jew, named Mark Fredrick, formerly of Portland, Oregon, was shot dead on Sunday morning, Aug 2d, by Cross Road Jack, or John Elliott. Fredrick is a merchant, who recently came in from Lewiston, having a stock of goods now on the way here. The night previous to being killed a man named Vincent Davis, with two or three others, all under the influence of bad whisky, had an altercation with him about something, and in the morning Davis returned to the place where the deceased was stopping, and commenced talking over the matter in a manner indicating a drunken desire to have satisfaction. Fredrick showed fight, stepped back into the store, armed himself with a pistol, and returning to the sidewalk, commenced an attack upon Elliott, who retreated some thirty or forty feet diagonally across the street, and after receiving a shot, returned it, neither of the balls taking effect. Fredrick then fired again, taking deliberate aim, which again missed Elliott who then fired and inflicted a mortal wound upon Fredrick. A coroner's inquest was held upon the body the same day, and a verdict returned in accordance with the facts. Elliott immediately gave himself up, and after a preliminary examination before Justice McGowan, was discharged."

WHAT BALTIMORE IS DOING FOR OUR LOYAL SOLDIERS.—A little over two years ago, in the streets of Baltimore loyal soldiers hastening to the national defense were shot down by a murderous mob thousands of the rich and influential of the city, in the privacy of their homes, rejoicing over the inhuman deed. To day Baltimore, atoning for her offense, is foremost in every good and patriotic work, sparing neither men, means nor effort in her support of the national authority. Nowhere are our sick and wounded so kindly cared for, nowhere are rebel sympathizers held with a firmer hand, nowhere is the comfort of our noble armies in the field more thoroughly consulted. Not only since the battles in Pennsylvania have immense trains of sanitary supplies been forwarded to Gettysburg and other points, but the thousands of wounded who have reached Baltimore have been looked after with the tenderest consideration. Every train is met upon its arrival by delegations of patriotic women and committees of various Union associations at whose hands refreshments are administered, sore wounds are cleansed, shattered limbs are bound up, and the grime and dust of battle are washed away with softest touch. The nation and its brave defenders will not forget these kindly deeds of the true women of the Monumental City, whose lives will blossom with new joys—the compensations of right doing—in the years which may yet remain unto them.—*N. BETTER LATE THAN NEVER.—We are glad to perceive that the Street Commissioner has commenced a vigorous onslaught upon one of the many break neck man traps with which our city abounds. While strolling along Front street last evening we were most agreeably surprised to perceive a number of workmen busily engaged in tearing up the planking at the corner of Taylor street, with the apparent determination to obliterate all traces of a dangerous chasm which has long been the terror of nightly pedestrians. It is obscurely hinted that one dark night, some time ago, a prominent citizen was observed disappearing within the depths of the aforesaid chasm, and has not since been heard of, but this is not generally credited. This movement of the Street Commissioner is in the right direction and now that he has introduced a little activity into his department we trust he will not cease his improvements until all our streets are entirely repaired.

RECORDER'S COURT.—George H Barnett was brought before the Recorder yesterday charged with driving a team without a license. The defendant pleaded not guilty. After an examination of witnesses on both sides, and a hearing of the arguments of P. McGraw, city attorney, and W. L. Mc[illegible] and Lansing Stout, counsel for defendant, he was found guilty, and ordered to pay a fine of $10 and costs.

Michael Fink, charged by Milton Mason of the Black Hawk, with being one of the parties concerned in the robbery of Dr Daven[illegible] in June last, was arrested on Wednesday by Sheriff Ladd and Marshal Clark. Yesterday Mason filed his affidavit in the Recorder's Court, and a warrant was issued to the marshal to bring Fink before the court for an examination of witnesses for the prosecution, the case was adjourned to nine o'clock this morning.

WILL RECOVER.—It affords us great pleasure to hear that Mr W. L. Cardwell will fully recover from the effects of the severe injuries he received by the fall of some scaffold on Wednesday last. In yesterday's issue we erroneously stated that the accident was caused by the failing of a portion of the scaffolding used in building the new Presbyterian Church. It was at the stable in course of erection near the church that the accident occurred.

PLEASANT.—We are now enjoying the most pleasant portion of our Oregon summer. The weather, notwithstanding the bright sunshine, is most agreeably mild. The thermometer yesterday evening at four o'clock stood at [illegible] in the shade and 90° in the sun.

THE STEAMER Julia did not bring any dust worthy of mention to Wells, Fargo & Co. last evening, on her arrival from the Dalles, and there was but a small quantity in the hands of passengers.

THEATER.—Owing to the extremely limited attendance at the theater last evening, the performances were postponed until Saturday when the powerful drama of "Nick of the Woods" will be produced.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—Gents: I can hardly able to express my gratitude for the benefit which my daughter has derived from the use of DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS. She had been troubled with what the physician called LIVER COMPLAINT; but our doctor failed to give her any permanent relief, although she tried his prescription faithfully. She had become melancholy, unhappy, and her constitution was much broken down by the use of Mercury. She tried DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and soon began to get better. I am happy to say that she has now recovered her health. Respectfully yours, JAMES CORD.

Another Speech of John Brough.

We take the following extracts from the speech made at Cleveland, Ohio, after the nomination of Mr Brough

A Democratic Convention has met at Columbus, and has adopted what we all consider as an unwise course They have set forth doctrines which are entirely wrong, and they attempt to force the people to believe them; but they will not succeed The masses are at the bottom of their hearts truly loyal; they are honest in their support of our Government; they are desirous to put down the rebellion At present some may be misled, but they will soon have a more serious and thorough opinion Thurman, the other night, attempted to make a point with the people on this wise: "How could they be induced to believe in the doctrines of men who vilified their opinions, their motives and their intentions?" Thurman is wrong It is not the people who are to blame It is those who set themselves forth as their leaders The great Democratic party is loyal They will act aright; they will think aright I have been reading to some friends letters from Democrats in various portions of the State, and what they say proves my assertion The people just now are deceived by cries that "Peace could be made, if only the proper men were in power to prompte efforts in that direction" I desire peace as much as any one, but I say to these gentlemen who propose it that I want honor with that peace, and guarantees for its future preservation [Applause] But what overtures have you made that have been received with anything like a reciprocal feeling? What propositions have they offered which could be accepted? The Richmond Enquirer scouts at the resolutions of your Peace Conventions, and ridicules them as cowardly, contemptible, and the production of miserable doughfaces. They desire no peace which shall not be discussed as between equal powers, Government to Government, the Border States on both sides of the line to be left at liberty to choose their own party Is there any one here who is prepared to grant all this? [Cries, "No, no"] There is but one road to peace, and you must seek it by force of arms, or submit to degrading subjugation yourselves The South has not gone into this war without an object For the last twenty five years they have been plotting the destruction of your Government They desired to change your institutions, and build up an oligarchy founded on African slavery They had possession of your Executive, and turned it into an engine to aid their purposes They have forced the present issue upon you, and you have nothing to do but to fight it out, or turn your backs and submit to humiliating subjection There is no middle course That man who is not with this Government to-day is against it "But," say these reasoners, "the Constitution gives us the right to discuss and abuse the Government, and we'll sow the seeds of disaffection in the army abroad, and discourage enlistments at home, and to prevent it you will establish a military despotism" They are already commencing their work In the Convention which preceded the Convention on account of which I am now speaking, a Committee of twenty-three was appointed to draft resolutions Those resolutions, twenty-three in number, are all against the conduct of the Government, and not one against the sympathizers with the rebellion In an abstract way these men may have the right thus to express themselves, but what right have they more than the tories, who in the time of the Revolution did all they could to thwart the glorious designs of the heroic Fathers of the Republic? What right have they more than the members of the Hartford Convention, who opposed our second struggle for national honor and national existence? These men had, perhaps, a quasi legal right to act as they did; and yet how upon both generations there rests the pall of shame, how the taint of leprosy had taken possession of their blood, and the brand of pollution is upon their brows, placed there by Divine Justice, as it was on the forehead of the first murderer, that men might know them ever after! [Cheers] Let no young man go with that faction None can afford it Let him regard the feelings of those who come after him Let him not give his posterity cause to regret his having lived Dishonor and disgrace will mantle him and his children forever

* * * * * * * *

Judge Thurman says that if "slavery were restored to its original status we would have peace." You may go down on your knees in supplication and you cannot bring these Southerners back They had every branch of the Government in their hands except the Executive, and yet they commenced this war. It is because they did not wish in any event to remain, that they made their preparations to go out. I think of slavery as Othello said of Desdemona:

"Yet she must die, else she'll betray more men."

Slavery must die, else it will make more wars Should we patch up a peace now, with the burden of servitude still cankering in the national existence, in less than ten years we would be making war anew It is wickedness to yield up that for which our blood and treasure have been poured out with a fervor and generosity worthy any age of heroes It is wickedness to sue for national dishonor and national destruction, when we should be straining every nerve and devoting every capability toward the reinstatement of our national dignity firmly upon its ancient throne, and those who are turned aside by these selfish and [illegible] suggestion will have something for which to feel relentless self contempt as long as memory holds its power in the mind [Cheers] For many years, you are aware, I have held ideas of a conservative character on this slavery question I have changed my views I now see the impossibility of permanent success in our republic as long as any portion of it is affected with the leprous disease Either slavery must be torn out, root and branch, or our Government will exist no longer

FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL
AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.
THIS Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the WATERY OR CALCAREOUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,
IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE
Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those direful diseases,
"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION."
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS
THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,
And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that THE CONSTITUTION,
once affected by Organic Weakness,
Requires the Aid of Medicine,
to strengthen and invigorate the system, which
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
invariably does.
A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS
Who have been the victims of Quacks
